

THE CAT BECOMES A DOCTOR

There was one cat

The cat overheard the discussions between some birds

Our friends who are being kept in that big cage are sick and their disease is spreading. We should immediately search for a doctor

If i go to those birds in the guise of a doctor, then i can quitely kill one bird everyday and fill my stomach

The cat went to make-up man

Make me look like a doctor. Remove my moustache and make the stripes on my body disappear

I cannot make these stripes on your body disappear. I can give doctor coat with long sleeves, shoes with long socks and big hat with scarf. In this way I can cover the stripes on your body

The cat was extremely happy

A purple cat with black stripes on its face and ears is shown from the chest up. It is wearing a purple scarf. The cat has a thoughtful expression, with its eyes looking slightly to the side and its mouth slightly open. A speech bubble is coming from the cat's mouth.

Good idea! Then no one will recognize me

The make-up man made the cat look like a doctor

The cat wore a white coat and wore a spectacle. She hung the stethoscope around her neck and wore the hat of a doctor

In the guise of a doctor, carrying a bag, she reached near the cage of birds

To treat all of you, I have come here.
So kindly open the door of this cage so that I can check you all. I can give you medicine and make you alright

Hearing this, the birds were greatly happy. They started chirping.

At that moment, one clever bird said....

Wait, wait, do not open the door so soon

Please tell me which family you belong to?

The cat fumbled

Fa...family? Do...doctor..I....I am a do...doctor

We know that you are a doctor but what is your caste? Just like how we are crows, sparrows, parrots, peacocks pigeons... similarly which caste you belong? What family you belong?

Hearing the question, the cat was afraid and bewildered. Out of fear, by mistake, she uttered....

Meow.....

All the birds came to know

Oh, she is a cat!

O cat, if you go away then we will definately be allright

The cat's face fell down with shame and walked away quietly
